

Russia Admits Farm Produce Sadly Lagging

By REINHOLD G. ENSZ

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev today ordered a drastic shakeup of Soviet industry and agriculture to spur production of all kinds of goods, and told his Communist party it must "learn from the capitalists."

Khrushchev told the powerful 175-member Communist party Central Committee the primary emphasis would continue to be on heavy industry—and presumably armaments—rather than consumer goods. But he stressed new efforts to put more food and other consumer goods in Soviet shops.

The program was laid down in a long speech to the committee's special meeting on industry and agriculture reorganization. Its major recommendation called for tightening of party control over all phases of production.

Khrushchev also told the committee the Soviet Union should take a thoughtful look at what makes profits for the capitalists in the West.

"There was a time—I mean in the period of the personality cult (a phrase meaning the Stalin era)—when the idea was sedulously fostered that everything that is ours is unreservedly ideal, and everything that is foreign is equally bad," Khrushchev said.

"We should remember Lenin's injunction to be able, if necessary, to learn from the capitalists, to imitate the good and the profitable they have."

Khrushchev proposed two party organizations, one for control of industry, the other for agriculture. The party should create, he said, organizations paralleling those of specific industries from top to bottom, to unite all party members of any given industry.

Auto Thief Captured at Emmet

Floyd Wharton, 36, formerly of Little Rock, was lodged in Hempstead County jail today following his arrest Monday at Emmet. The ex-convict had been sought by officers since Saturday night after being involved in a wreck on Highway 67 east of Hope.

Wharton was driving a car which he stole at Houston, Texas following his release from the Texas State Prison at Huntsville where he served five years for burglary.

The auto ran into the rear end of another occupied by Robert O. Moore of Cleveland, Ohio and careened into a third vehicle occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Sid Martin of Stephens.

The Stephens couple suffered minor injuries. A hitchhiker riding with Wharton was treated at a local hospital for cuts and bruises and was released today. He was listed as Harold T. Tebo of Schenectady, N. Y.

Following the collision Wharton ran off. Officers searched for him all Saturday night and Sunday and State Police Sgt. Guy Downing and W. T. Brewster captured him at Emmet Monday morning. He had hidden all week-end in a cotton gin.

Sen. Chavez Dies in New Mexico

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Dennis Chavez is dead of a heart attack at 74.

The veteran New Mexico Democrat died unexpectedly early Sunday in Georgetown University Hospital.

His successor will be named by Gov. Edwin L. Mechem. New Mexico's outgoing Republican chief executive, Mechem, who leaves office Jan. 1, is considered a prime prospect for the Senate term which runs until the general election in 1964.

If the post goes to Mechem or a fellow Republican, he will be the first GOP senator from New Mexico in a generation. The line-up of the new Senate had been 68 Democrats and 32 Republicans.

Mechem said at Albuquerque that the death of Chavez was a tragedy and that he would not discuss the possibility of a successor for some time.

Chavez entered the hospital on Nov. 7, the day after the general election. He had a virus infection and a high fever he is believed to have contracted while campaigning in New Mexico for Jack Campbell, who defeated Mechem in the governorship race.

Doctors said the illness, coming after 8 months of treatment for cancer of the neck, led to the heart attack. Chavez had planned to leave the hospital Sunday to recuperate at home.

Chavez was chairman of the Senate Public Works Committee and a member of the Appropriations Committee.

The body of Chavez will be flown today to Santa Fe, where it will lie in state in the New Mexico Senate chamber. It will be taken to Albuquerque Tuesday evening for services Wednesday morning at the Immaculate Conception Roman Catholic church.

Baby Girl Found Abandoned

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A healthy baby girl, only a few hours old, was found abandoned in a Fort Smith hospital Saturday, hospital officials said Sunday night.

The blue-eyed, light-haired girl was found in a doctor's coat room by Mrs. Frank Garrett of Fort Smith, who had just been dismissed as a patient from the hospital.

Sister Mary Maurelia, hospital administrator, said no clues had been found as to the child's parents or identity. She said the baby was doing fine and would "receive tender, loving care from the nursing personnel of the hospital" until dismissed by doctors to the Child Welfare Department.

Mrs. Garrett said she found the child in a blanket from which laundry marks had been removed.

Accidental Death Toll in State 22

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

One person died in a traffic accident Sunday, one burned to death and one was found dead near railroad tracks, posting Arkansas' violent death toll for the week ended midnight Sunday at 22.

A kerosene stove exploded in a small workshop in Jonesboro, igniting a fire that left 13-year-old Gary Higgins dead. His father, Minford Higgins, 31, was critically burned and Howard Dorton, 37, Higgins' brother-in-law was burned, but not seriously.

Asst. Police Chief Nel McDanel said the stove exploded when Higgins attempted to put more kerosene in it while the heater was burning. The workshop was a small wooden building behind the Higgins' home in Jonesboro.

Elmer Snyder Jr., 18, of Mount Ida, was killed Sunday when his car ran off Highway 27 and struck a tree near Mount Ida.

The body of an unidentified Negro man was found beside Missouri Pacific Railroad tracks at Carman. An engineer spotted the body and telephoned Cal County authorities. Coroner Dick Elmer said the man, who had no identification papers, apparently was hit by a train.

Also during the week five other persons died in fires, seven died in traffic accidents, two died in a car-train collision and five other persons were shot to death, including three deer hunters.

Bill Proposes Registration of Voters

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A voter registration system to be used if the poll tax is banned will be set up by the 1963 Arkansas Legislature, several members of the Arkansas Legislative Council predicted Saturday.

Illinois recently became the first state to ratify a proposed amendment to the United States Constitution which would eliminate the use of the poll tax.

Arkansas and four other states require a poll tax. Three-fourths of the state legislatures must approve the proposed amendment before it is adopted.

Pulaski County Rep. Joel Y. Ledbetter said he thought the Arkansas Legislature should ratify the amendment because it is expected to receive the required approval.

But Rep. L. H. Autry of Mississippi County remarked, "I want it down in big black letters that I am not going to vote against the poll tax."

Both agreed that Arkansas should set up a voter registration system in case the poll tax is eliminated, but they did not know what type.

Other comment came from Reps. John Bethel of Prairie County, J. B. Walt of Jefferson County and from Sen. Olen Hendrix of Prescott.

Ledbetter, chairman of the Legislative Committee on State and Local Government, said his group is doing research on voter registration systems in other states.

All the lawmakers indicated they would like to keep the poll tax, but said some planning is in order in view of the proposed constitutional amendment.

Castro Grounds Planes to Track U.S. Spy Craft

WASHINGTON (AP)—A primary reason behind the Cuban government's grounding of domestic aviation may be radar difficulty in detecting and tracking U.S. reconnaissance planes.

The planes were grounded Sunday, following Premier Fidel Castro's warning late last week that surveillance craft flying over Cuba will be destroyed.

Low and high flying American reconnaissance planes, keeping tabs on former missile sites and other military developments, aroused Castro's fire.

Military radar for locating and tracing aircraft has been installed recently by the Russians for Cuba but there appears to be some question about its efficiency in its present form.

Military radar must be able to separate friendly or false targets from a true target. This requires considerable "sophistication" in the equipment and in the ability of crews to interpret radar signals.

The U.S. tactic of flying low level as well as high altitude reconnaissance missions has complicated Cuba's problem. Some planes fly in below the searching radar beams.

There were these other developments touching on the Cuban situation:

Rep. Bob Wilson of California, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, said the U.S. must encourage Cuban refugees to invade Cuba at some future date and drive communism out of the hemisphere.

In an article in the Communist Party organ, Pravda, in Moscow, the Soviet Union defended its withdrawal of missiles from Cuba and accused Red China of siding with the imperialists.

A claim that withdrawal of Soviet missiles from Cuba has saved peace was described as "pure nonsense" by Peking People's Daily. The official Chinese organ charged that the "grave threat of U.S. aggression against Cuba persists" and that the Cuban crisis "is far from being over."

John M. McCloy, chairman of President Kennedy's coordinating committee on the Cuban crisis, was the luncheon guest of Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet first deputy foreign minister at the Soviet U.N. delegation's Long Island country house in Glen Cove. McCloy said it was just a social visit.

At Guantanamo Bay, the commander of the Marine ground forces guarding the big U.S. naval base in Cuba said it is highly defensible because Castro can not isolate it. Brig. Gen. William R. Collins said "if we control the seas around the base and the air, we control the base."

DeGaulle Party Beats French Communists

By HARVEY HUDSON

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle today emerged from the first round of the National Assembly elections with a new and resounding victory over France's old line political parties.

The Gaullist Union for a New Republic (UNR), with a one-plank platform of unswerving loyalty to De Gaulle, displaced the Communists as France's strongest political party.

The UNR won 50 of the 104 seats decided Sunday and led in 134 of the 369 districts of metropolitan France where runoffs will be held next Sunday. The party's share of the popular vote nearly doubled, from 17.5 per cent in 1958 to 33.9 per cent.

Although Interior Minister Roger Frey predicted the UNR would wind up with a majority in the 481-member assembly this appeared unlikely. Even if it won all the runoffs in the races in which its candidates led, it would still be about 60 short of a majority. But the Gaullists were expected to draw enough support from segments of the Popular Republicans (MRP), the Independents and the Radical Socialists to form the next government.

Along with the old parties, the Communists registered a gain—slight one—in voting percentages, advancing from 18.9 in 1958 to 27.8.

All other parties lost ground—a development dramatically spotlighted in the crushing defeat of ex-Premier Paul Reynaud by a colorless Gaullist in the north, and a sharp rebuff to a comeback attempt by ex-Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

Complete official returns from Metropolitan France, including Corsica, gave 18,343,733 votes cast.

The vote totals for the major parties and their percentages (1958 percentages in parentheses) were:

UNR—46 seats, 5,847,403 votes, 31.9 per cent (7.5); Communists—9 seats, 3,992,341, 27.8 (18.9); Independent—Republicans and Peasants conservatives—18 seats, 2,458,986, 13.42 (19.9); Socialists—1 seat, 239,662, 12.65 (15.5); MRP—14 seats, 1,635,452, 8.92 (1.8); Radical Socialists, 8 seats, 1,384,998, 7.56 (1.5).

First returns on the 16 seats at stake in overseas departments gave the UNR 4 seats the MRP 3 and the Radical Socialists 1.

Gaullist strength in the last assembly was 176.

Burns Fatal at Jonesboro

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Minford Higgins, 31, died early today in a Jonesboro hospital of burns received when a kerosene stove exploded in a small workshop Sunday, killing his 3-year-old son, Gary, and injuring another man.

Higgins had been in critical condition since the fire.

Also injured in the fire was Howard Dorton, 37, Higgins' brother-in-law. He was treated at the hospital and released.

Asst. Police Chief Nel McDanel said the fire apparently started when Higgins attempted to put more kerosene in the lighted stove.

The fall of Walong near the Burma border came after the biggest battle since the Chinese first struck.

His announcement of the new reverses came after a speech Sunday night in which he said the Chinese offensive is threatening Indian independence. He said other countries are now beginning to realize that this is not a border dispute but "naked, crude and shameless aggression."

A Peking broadcast quoted Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai as saying U.S. arms aid to India will enlarge the conflict "to the detriment of the Chinese and Indian people and of the Afro-Asian peoples." About $5 million worth of badly needed infantry weapons have been flown to India by the United States.

Peking radio claimed that after capturing Se Pass the Chinese pressed their advance to the southeast in the direction of the Indian army's advance headquarters on the Dhrang River.

The Indian army was reported planning to put their next defense line in this area of the northeast frontier district at 8,726-foot Bomblila, on the next ridge of an Indian-built road running to Tezpur on the Assam plains.

DOROTHY DIX

Dear Helen: We are forever hearing about meddlesome in-laws and parents. "Keep your nose out of the young folks' business; let them lead their own lives," is the popular line today. How about the children and their mates practicing the hands-off policy too? I know a son-in-law whose name should be: Prying Pete. He insists upon being told every detail of his father-in-law's business and, what's worse, tried to manage it for him. Yet my friend, his father-in-law, is entirely capable of running his own affairs. But let him try and the son-in-law gives him a cussing out that leaves the air blue.

I was brought up to respect my elders and their opinions. Not so this generation. Thanks to their mismanagement, the American character has gone to hell. Old-fashioned integrity, sincerity of purpose and pride of craft mean nothing to this know-it-all son-in-law. How can we peons of the older generation throw off the yoke? —Friend of the Father-in-law

Dear Friend: I wouldn't be too pessimistic. Remember we've had two world wars within the memory of many. Young people are forced to adjust to an ever-changing way of life: the automobile, airplane, radio, TV and now the attempt to conquer outer space. No wonder they are tense, over-bossy, or plain zombie with little or no feeling left.

There have been more changes in the last 100 years than in the preceding 1,000.

If your friend's son-in-law is both capable and aggressive, let him run things. Maybe his modern methods are better than the old. Tell your friend to take a holiday. Relax, enjoy his latter years. But if the boy is merely intent upon taking over without the ability to carry on, then your friend should keep the control. After all, it's his business, his money.

Tell him to stay in the driver's seat, give his son-in-law a department to run and let him prove his worth. How about talking to the daughter? She's in the picture whether or not she appears. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Be Tactful."

Confidential to Worried and Concerned: Be your own sweet self. Ignore gossip. If the boy is really your friend, he will too. Never complain, never explain, not even to his mother. Let the cousin stew in her own venom.

Dear Helen: My problem is the woman down the street. Her philosophy is divide and conquer. Make trouble. Pit neighbor against neighbor. Carry tales. Break up homes.

At first we were all in a stew. Friends stopped speaking. A pall hung over our block. Now, realizing what she is, we've put her in Coventry to no avail. She's simply spinning her evil web elsewhere, the while continuing to live in our neighborhood behind drawn blinds. Should we have our minister call on her? —Bothered

Dear Bothered: There is only one thing to do with a scandal monger: ignore her unless the calumny she spreads does actual harm to some one individual. If this can be proven, the person in question could sue for libel. But on the whole it's wiser to steer clear of the courts for, as with most wars, nobody, not even the victor, wins. There are thousands of women such as your neighbor, who have nothing better to do than spread gossip. Leave them alone and they'll undo themselves.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address the care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Neighbors."

Bobcats Meet Nashville to Close Season

By VINCE FOSTER

Going into their final game of the season, which is with Nashville Thursday, the Hope Bobcats look very impressive. They held a won-lost-tied record of 7-3-1 and all their losses were by only 7-0 scores. Also, the Bobcats rank high in team statistics in Region 4AA, which houses such other powers as Camden, Fairview, Malvern, Crossett, Smackover, and Magnolia, who the Cats have to meet for six consecutive Fridays.

Twelve different Bobcats teamed together to total up 207 points in eleven games, while the powerful and notorious Hope defense has given up only 78 points. This is particularly impressive since the Cats have gone scoreless in four of their eleven games. In fact, the Bobcats have won every game they've scored in. David Porterfield leads this scoring with 54 points, followed by Jackie Russell with 30 and Richard McDowell with 24. Roy Wray and Jerry Burnett have scored 18 each, while Maurice Sullivan, Mack McLarty, and Larry Thrash each have two touchdowns. Earl Ray Murphy has 9 points, and Gary Mayfield, Chuck Beggs, and Buddy Jordan each have a TD.

The Bobcats have outtrashed their opponents 23-47 yards to 1484 and outpassed them 677 to 470. Porterfield has rolled up 687 yards rushing and Jerry Burnett, a sophomore, has 282. Roy Wray has 278, Maurice Sullivan 254, Richard McDowell 239, Mack McLarty 229, Jackie Russell 192, Bill Aldridge 53, Buddy Jordan 47, Gary Mayfield 42, Mutt Wassell 34, Jerry Waller II, and Johnny Samuels 8. The Bobcats have been penalized 675 yards, while their opponents have received 470 yards in penalties.

After Head Coach John Pierce and his assistants, Gordon Beasley and Glenn Ballard are mentioned and commended, this leaves only the Bobcat line, which is always needed but soon forgotten. However, this line has been the key to the Cat's success this season and will really be depended on Thursday. The senior line men are: center, Donnie Vaughn; Guards, Charles Beggs and Tony Purdie; tackles, Kendall Yocum, Charles Beeryler, Jack Jackson, and Jerry Gaud; ends, Jewell Still, Earl Ray Murphy, and Larry Cook.

Returning junior linemen and their weights are: center, Dan Jones at 195; Guards, Ricky Butler, 195, and Jack Caldwell, 170; Tackles, "Tiny" Walker, 210; Ends, Joe Mortow at 150, James Marcum at 165, John Hughes at 170, Larry Thrash at 135, and George Wright at 175.

These are the boys and the coaches that have had such a good season. This is what Nashville better be looking for, because Thursday the Bobcats plan to close their season with a victory.

State Wins Over South Dakotans

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State's Indians struck down lackluster South Dakota 18-0 here Saturday and posted their finest record in seven years.

The victory gave State a 6-3 season mark, best since 1955 when the Indians went 6-3.

South Dakota never threatened, and took its ninth thumping of the year against one triumph.

Quarterback Sammy Weir fired a 38-yard touchdown pass to fullback Harold Wallins in the first quarter and tackle Jack Burns added the extra point.

Burns followed with a 40-yard field goal to give State a 10-0 halftime lead.

Indian halfback Ken Mashburn skirted left end and rambled 13 yards in the fourth quarter for another touchdown and Weir passed to right end Haskell McCain for a two-point conversion.

State's only losses this year were to Murray, Ky., State; Mississippi Southern and Tennessee Tech.

Saturday's games:

1. Alabama (8-) lost to Georgia Tech 7-6.

2. Southern California (8-0 beat Navy 13-6.

Russia

He proposed that the number of regional economic councils and farm production directorates be reduced and consolidated.

Other points he made:
Study should be given to idea of linking factories into "firms and combines" under one efficient management.

2. The power to construct factory buildings and other buildings should be taken away from industries and put under a special building organization.

3. Research institutes should be developed in connection with specific industries and should not be controlled by the Academy of Sciences in Moscow.

4. The Soviet Union should learn as much as possible from advanced Western methods.

The premier called for "radical measures" to shake up the party's organization and work patterns. He said modern times demand this.

"Old organizational forms," he declared, "are, to a degree, becoming a drag on the party's guidance of production."

The meeting of the powerful, 175-member Central Committee was called for the specific task of putting more life into the economy, much of which has been hindered and stifled by excessive bureaucracy but even more by lack of investment capital.

Revealing next year's production plans, Khrushchev said there should be an 8.5 per cent increase in capital goods. For consumer goods the proposed increase is 6.3 per cent.

Khrushchev said capital investment would total more than 33 billion rubles. (one ruble is officially valued at $1.).

As for agriculture, he called for an increase of 32 million acres under field crops.

The meeting was behind closed doors. Khrushchev's speech was reported by the Soviet news agency Tass. The session is expected to last the rest of the week.

On the eve of the meeting, the Communist party organ Pravda had defended the government's Cuban rocket withdrawal and accused Red China of siding with the imperialists. The article also made an implied attack on Red China's border war against India.

Arkansas Wins Arizona Title

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Amateur Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., National Public Links champion for the past two years, won the Arizona Open Golf Tournament Saturday in a three-way playoff.

Sikes tied with pro Bob Harris of Tucson, Ariz., and amateur Wayne Breck of Phoenix with a regulation 72-hole score of 74-72-69-68—282 after one-putting 1 holes and cupping No. from 60 feet out.

In the sudden death overtime, Sikes again flashed a dazzling putter and took a birdie and an eagle, eliminating Breck on the first hole and Harris on the second.

Harris, who shot a 69 Saturday to go with previous rounds of 69-73-71, walked off with the $1,000 first-prize money as top pro.

Hales Is Hero in Porkers' 9-7 Victory

By JOHN R. STARR

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks go after an unprecedented ninth victory in one season against Texas Tech in Lubbock, Tex., Saturday with a fourth straight bowl tripready in the bag.

The Porkers sewed up a post season invitation Saturday with a come-from-behind triumph over dogged by dead tired Southern Methodist, 9-7, in soggy War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock.

The Razorbacks were to meet today to decide whether to take a Bluebonnet or Gator Bowl bid or to wait for possible invitations from the Orange and Sugar bowls.

Sophomore quarterback Billy Gray steered the Razorbacks to a fourth-quarter touchdown and Tommy McKnelly kicked a 27-yard field goal for the winning points against SMU.

But the hero of the game was guard Mike Hales, who burst through to block a field goal try by Mustang John Richey from the "gimme" distance of 27 yards with only one minute to play.

"I shot the gap and nobody touched me," Hales said. "I got there almost as soon as the ball did."

Until tailback Jesse Branch sprinted 11 yards over center and into the end zone in the fourth minute of the final period, SMU had all the points although Arkansas had dominated the game statistically.

The Mustangs moved 78 yards in 15 plays, all but one on the ground, to score in the second quarter. Quarterback Don Campbell hit halfback Billy Gannon with a 14-yard pass to put the ball on the Arkansas 15 and he legged it over on the next play.

Richey converted and that extra point looked mighty big when Arkansas, unwilling to settle for a tie, tried and failed to get two points after its touchdown.

The winning drive started after SMU's Danny Thomas punted out of bounds on the Arkansas 48. Regular quarterback Billy Moore took over after Gray ran for a first down at the SMU 42.

An 11-yard Moore to end Jim Finch pass and a 5-yard run by wingback Stan Sparks got a first down on the 16. But one rush by Branch and two by Sparks picked up only seven yards and coach Frank Broyles waved McKnelly into the game.

He kicked from the left hash mark with the wind at his back. The crowd of 42,000 knew it was good from the moment it left his toe.

However, SMU, rebuilding under coach Hayden Fray, a former Arkansas assistant, did not quit.

With the help of a 15-yard fourth foul penalty, the Mustangs crashed into Arkansas territory with time running out. With quarterback Roger Braugh running and passing and Gannon running and receiving, the Ponies moved to a first down on the Arkansas 14.

Fullback Doyce Walker gained four, then a Braugh pass fell incomplete. SMU elected to go for the field goal on third down, but Hales wrecked the effort. SMU recovered the ball and had one more time but Braugh passed incomplete on a fake field goal play.

Arkansas got the ball with 22 seconds left and Moore ran out the clock with a keeper into the line.

That last minute drive was only the second SMU scoring opportunity in the first half and two in the third period. First Moore overthrew end Jerry Lamb after Lamb worked behind SMU defenders at the goal line.

Then, after Arkansas drove for 70 yards with the second half kickoff to a first and goal at the SMU five, fullback Danny Braugh fumbled and Mustang Bill Harlan recovered on first down.

SMU kicked out and Ken Hatfield returned 19 yards to the Pony 3. Moore rambled for a first down at the 21 but from there Arkansas got only nine yards on two rushed by Branch and two by Moore and gave up the ball.

U.S. Collects Much More Taxes in '62

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Sam is collecting more in taxes this fiscal year than last—$4.5 billion more, in fact. But he is spending more, too—at least $6 billion more. And so he's running further into the red—the third year of steadily rising deficits.

Plans for still higher spending next year, plus a promised cut in taxes which will hold down revenues, foreshadow a continuing deficit—to make it four years in a row.

Many stock traders have interpreted this as inflationary despite repeated denials by administration economists that any further inflation will be triggered by federal deficits under present conditions of unused industrial capacity and stubbornly high unemployment.

But one of the reasons given for the big spurt in stock prices since Soviet Premier Khrushchev said he wouldn't start a war over Cuba was the belief in Wall Street that the economy was in for a forward spurt, with big government spending as one of the bolstering factors.

Defense, may well cost more. And space projects are sure to. But the jump this year in the Treasury deficit is traceable to defense spending only to a minor degree. Defense costs rose only slightly over the previous year.

Spending on other programs in taxes which will hold down revenues, foreshadow a continuing deficit—to make it four years in a row.

The latest Treasury estimate on its deficit in the current fiscal year is $7.3 billion. In fiscal 1962 it was $6.3 billion and in fiscal 1961 the deficit was $3.9 billion. This $12 billion shortfall in three years is the main reason the federal debt has risen to more than $302 billion.

This year rising expenditures is part of the fault. But the administration's chief disappointment is that business didn't make as much profit as it had hoped—so the corporate income tax receipts are short of expectations, although total corporate profits for 1962 may well be at a record high. And personal incomes this year are at a record. But they, too, haven't gone as high as first estimated, so collections on personal income disappoint the Treasury. The total shortfall from earlier revenue expectations is $7 billion.

The administration hope is that the deficit—the government pumping more money into the economy than it is taking out—and the still promised tax cuts will help get business activity back into higher gear. Thus profits will rise—costs don't rise to fast, also—and there will be more Treasury revenue.

And more people will be working and making more from vari-

Liechtenstein Has Survived All Turmoil

By LOYAL GOULD

VADUZ, Liechtenstein (AP)—There's no railroad station in this capital of the principality of Liechtenstein. International trains pass through the country but don't stop.

Liechtenstein has no daily newspapers, no airports, no customs officials, no army.

With 17,125 residents, Liechtenstein is a cozy country that has survived the wars and turmoil that have swept Europe for centuries.

"Things are going topsy-turvy most everywhere else," says farmer Frederick Ospelt, "but we hope to go on living pretty much as we have in the past without too much worry about the outside world."

The Liechtensteins have not developed tourist attractions.

"You're welcome to come here," said farmer Gunther Vogel, "but we don't go out of our way to get you here."

Liechtenstein lies in the center of Europe. Covering 62 square miles, it stretches 17 miles north to south and about 7 miles east to west at its widest point.

The Austrian princes of Liechtenstein bought the territory from two other bankrupt noblemen and founded the state in 1713.

Switzerland and Austria are immediate neighbors.

The Swiss supply border guards, diplomatic representation abroad, and use of their currency. From the Austrians come the lion's share of the legal system plus rich pastries and meat dishes swimming in cream sauces.

Most of their German-speaking Swiss neighbors are Protestants, but the Liechtensteins, like the Austrians, are largely Roman Catholics.

"Our heads are with the Swiss but our hearts with the Austrians," says Mrs. Joseph Rheinberger, 80, a farmer's wife.

Every village is a picture of compromise—Swiss cleanliness on the outside but an atmosphere of relaxed Austrian comfort inside.

The ruling monarch is Franz Joseph II. A shy, retiring man of 66, the prince lives in a castle atop a hill on the outskirts of Vaduz. He owns the castle and the surrounding acre or so of land, plus vineyards.

His rights are limited. Liechten-stein's 15-member Parliament, which his grandfather set up in 1921, sees to that. Aside from opening and closing Parliament, signing measures approved by Parliament and okaying the lawmakers' choice of prime minister, he grants amnesties and bestows titles on deserving subjects.

The prince controls a large share of the wine industry, which produces red and white vintages. Little of it is left to send abroad after Liechtenstein consumers buy theirs—at $2.50 a bottle.

The income the prince derives from industrial and farm holdings in Western Europe is substantial but not enough to let him live extravagantly.

Liechtenstein's specialty is the registration of foreign companies whose directors need not reside in this country of reasonable taxes. No list of these is ever published, discretion being part of the service offered. Government officials say 5,000-6,000 such firms are signed up here for an annual fee of $100-150 each.

"These fees help build our roads and schools and keep work going in government house," said Oswald Keller, a storekeeper.

Before the last war, 80 per cent of the Liechtensteins lived from farming. Only 12 per cent do today. The others have gone to work in new metal plants and in factories making false teeth and artificial sausage skins.

Recommend a Bill
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The legislative committee of the Arkansas Education Association said Saturday the organization should seek passage in the 1963 legislature of an act similar to Amendment 53. The amendment, defeated in the Nov. 6 general election, would have transferred money from the state's Public School Fund to the Teacher Retirement System to keep the system on a sound financial basis. The Council on Education, policy making body for the AEA, will act on the committee's recommendation at a meeting Dec. 15 in Little Rock.

Trees a Big Business in Arkansas

By D. L. BAILEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

Trees, which grow in abundance throughout the green state of Arkansas, are responsible for the state's most profitable business. That business is the production of lumber and other forest related items, such as furniture and roofing materials, which provides jobs for more than 33,000. Production value is estimated at more than $500 million annually.

The 1,236 forest industries that grow and harvest trees and then produce usable objects, along with those that sell the products, employ more people than any other manufacturing industry in the state.

About 39 per cent of all persons employed in manufacturing in Arkansas are working in some forest-related industry. The total annual payroll for these industries amounts to one-third of the entire manufacturing payroll of the state—about $93 million.

In Arkansas, forest-dependent industries are particularly important to smaller communities. In many of these communities, the industry is the chief source of income. Many people also find part-time employment in the industries.

Arkansas produces more than 41 billion board feet of lumber annually, enough for a boardwalk of one-inch boards 32 feet wide to the moon. Arkansas has a total of 20,816,000 acres of first land. Much of it is owned by large lumber firms, such as the Crossett Division of Georgia-Pacific Corp., the Dierks Co. and the International Paper Co.

On this amount of acreage, almost two billion board feet was produced last year—almost four per cent of the national gross.

Serve Appetizing Salads With A Flair

Creatively prepared and dressed to perfection, salads are irresistible during the holidays, make the most of citrus fruits and try something different. been a policy of be-nice-to-everybody, including even those Democrats and Republicans in Congress who did the most to frustrate him and his programs, like medical care for the aged.

It's possible, feeling the need for a better showing, he'll switch and get tough. But it isn't likely, if only because of the presidential race when he may feel he needs every vote from every section.

In the recent campaign he pleaded for the election of more Democrats to Congress to help him make good in the next two years on programs he couldn't make good on in the past two because his Democratic-run Congress blocked him.

It was an amazing political sight to see a President saying he needed more people from his own party in a Congress where in sheer numbers people from his own party already drowned the Republicans.

What he really was asking for was more Democrats to offset those Democrats who teamed up with Republicans to kill his programs. In this case it was mainly the Southern Democrats.

The voters gave him four more Democrats in the Senate, making the party's majority there 68-32, or better than two to one over the Republicans, although in the House the Republicans picked up two seats.

Those two seats have practically no significance in changing the already heavily conservative mood of the House since the Democrats there will outnumber the Republicans 259-176.

These small changes in the makeup of the two houses actually can be considered a Kennedy victory since the minority party in an off-year election like this traditionally makes solid gains but this year didn't.

Therefore, through this triumph over tradition, Kennedy should be expected to deliver on a number of programs, particularly since he has overwhelming numbers of Democrats to help him.

But anything so nebulous as victory over tradition melts when placed against the hot arithmetic of politics.

Despite the huge Democratic majorities in both houses, some of the programs Kennedy talked most about, like medical care, were slaughtered by a combination of conservative Democrats and Republicans.

The complexion of Congress hasn't been changed enough by the Nov. 6 elections to make the outlook for his pet programs any more optimistic.

Nevertheless, Kennedy campaigned, he won a victory over tradition and now it's up to him to perform.

If he gets slaughtered again on some of his major programs, but manages to get through a moderate amount of more or less usual legislation, he probably will say in 1964 as he did this year: it was a tremendous Congress, one of the best.

And when he runs for re-election, as he seems certain to, he will be out campaigning for even more Democrats in Congress.

Orange Basket Salads
1 envelope creamy French salad dressing mix
Vinegar, water, oil
6 large oranges
Sections from 1 or 2 grapefruits
Water cress

Combine salad dressing mix with vinegar, water, and oil as directed on envelope. Chill 1 hour.

Meanwhile, use 4 oranges to make baskets. Draw 2 parallel lines across stem end of each orange about 1/2 inch apart, coming almost half way down sides of orange. With a small sharp knife cut into orange along these lines. Then from each side cut in at right angles to meet the ends of the cuts already made. Lift out the 2 sections, leaving a handle over the top. Remove all pulp and make a fluted edge around baskets with a sharp knife.

Trim white membrane from orange sections. Remove sections from remaining oranges and the grapefruits. Alternately place orange and grapefruit sections in baskets. Set baskets on salad plates. Surround with water cress. Garnish with avocado balls and maraschino cherries, if desired. Serve with salad dressing. Makes 4 appetizer or dessert salads.

kansas lumber goes not only all over the nation, but all over the world.

The export of lumber will probably pick up once the Arkansas River is made navigable.

"We've already had queries from West Germany and several African nations about our lumber," Chatham said.

Nearly three-fifths of the total lumber volume is in pine and other softwoods. The rest is in hardwoods, with red and white oaks accounting for more than a fifth of the total.

Most of the forests are in the northern and southern sections of the state. Roughly southwest of Pine Bluff, there are dense forests of pine. In the Ozark section, there are forests of hardwood, largely oak and hickory, and in the counties along the Mississippi River grow oaks, gums and cypress.

A connected business, the pulp and paper industry, provides employment for 4,500 persons in the state, not counting those who work in the woods growing and harvesting pulpwood.

The yearly payroll of the pulp and paper industry is more than $20 million. The wholesale value of its products is approximately $137 million.

The pulp and paper industry is providing a rapidly expanding market for trees grown locally. Arkansas' pulpwood harvest at most doubled during the last decade, rising from 603,700 to 1,210,360 cords. With expansion of the industry now under way, the pulpwood harvest is likely to continue increasing for the next several years.

Technological advances in the industry in the past few years have resulted in the increased use of hardwoods for pulp. They have also led to use of a wider variety of species.

The industry is doing its best to stay in business and provide employment for generations of Arkansians to come.

"We're firm believers in conservation," Chatham said. "Last year, we put 40 per cent more trees in the ground than we harvested."

In this manner, Arkansas' number one industry is assured the number one spot for many years to come.

JFK Paints Self Into a Corner

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has painted himself into a corner with election campaigning for a big Democratic congress. Getting out of it these next two years will require all his political skill.

Since he has plenty of that, the burden on him won't be unbearable and, win or lose with Congress, the result shouldn't interfere with his trying for the White House again in 1964.

But it will be interesting to see how he handles Congress with the presidential race coming up and the need for accomplishments intensifying.

In the past two years his has er families and about evenly split between heavily populated centers and more sparsely settled areas. Almost half are in the low income groups, and one important quarter, upper income.

The "Perry Mason Show" has signed Walter Pidgeon for an episode as guest-lawyer during Raymond Burr's four-show absence for surgery.

Actor Basil Rathbone, the most recent non-writer with an autobiography to plug, has been signed for NBC's "Play Your Hunch" and will undoubtedly be seen around on lots of other shows drumming up Christmas sales.

The conversation and game shows nowadays seem almost completely inhabited by celebrities with records, books or upcoming specials to advertise.

'Average' Set Takes Much Time

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the most widely used statistics concerning television is the estimated that the "average" set is in use a little more than five hours a day. It is a misleading one.

Studies of its audience samples by the Nielsen Research organization, however, lead to a conclusion that the nation's "heaviest viewers"—who account for about 38 per cent of the total viewing hours—have their sets on for about 10 hours during an average day.

But on the other end of the spectrum are the so-called "light" viewers—those families who use their sets on a daily average of an hour or less a day.

The "heavy" viewing families, Nielsen finds, consist importantly of large, young, middle-income families—five and more—in large cities. (The 10 hours, therefore, is presumed to be split up among the various members of the family, ranging from the young to the older adults.)

The "light" viewers are small-

Golden Corn Sticks Complement Holiday Meals

Holiday hams are as delicious as the first day when served for a second meal with Golden Corn Sticks. For a meal high in flavor and nutrition, round out the menu with American fried potatoes and lima beans.

You'll find the Golden Corn Sticks are the easiest items on the menu to prepare — by using enriched self-rising corn meal in the preparation. This special type of corn meal has baking powder and salt already added to it as a convenience and money saving measure for you. And thanks to enrichment, self-rising corn meal has valuable amounts of three B-vitamins, food iron and calcium added, also, for another bonus.

To give Golden Corn Sticks a crisp crust, preheat the greased pans while you're mixing the batter. Spoon the batter into the hot pans and quickly return them to the oven. When the Corn Sticks emerge, warm and fragrant, serve them with lots of butter and jam if you like.

GOLDEN CORN STICKS
2 1/4 cups enriched self-rising corn meal
2 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/4 cup melted shortening or oil
1 to 1 1/4 cups milk

Mix together thoroughly corn meal and sugar. Blend together meal mixture and milk until well-blended. If necessary, add more milk to make a medium thick batter. Fill well-greased corn stick pans or muffin cups. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown.

Makes 14 corn sticks or 12 medium muffins.

Corn Bread Use 2 cups enriched self-rising corn meal and 1/2 cup sifted enriched self-rising flour. Bake for 20 to 25 minutes in 8-inch square pan.

Using Snuff Was Common One Time

NEW YORK (AP)—What is it President John Adams, Dolley Madison, Vulture, Napoleon Bonaparte and Babe Ruth had in common?

Why, they all used snuff.

You may have thought that snuff went out with the perigee wig or the bustle. For an ignorant, sir! A double lie!

The so-called "Great Age of snuff" in Europe was during the 16th and 17th centuries and was largely a privilege of the aristocracy. But snuff is now in its second great age, and has more devotees in this country than during the U.S. Revolution.

"America leads the world in snuff, and we use far more than all the rest of the people on earth put together," proudly proclaimed Gerry Gilmarin, spokesman for the Snuff Information Center.

"Our production last year was 34 million pounds with a retail value of $60 million. That can be compared with a production of only three million pounds in 1975."

Gilmarin estimates America's snuff clientele at about six million. The reason you don't notice them is that few snuff snuff in public anymore. Most simply park their snuff under their lower lip, or between cheek and gum, and let it slowly dissolve.

"Snuff precedes the discovery of America," said Gilmarin. "Indians here customarily snuffed it through an eight-inch reed called a cubit."

Explorers brought snuff back to Portugal. Jean Nicot, French ambassador to Lisbon, sent samples home to his queen, Catherine de Medici, who spread the fad through European nobility. Nicot's reward: He gave his name to nicotine.

Snuff comes in two forms—dry and finely powdered—known in the trade as "scotch" and moist, which is coarse cut.

There are some 60 brands, flavored with licorice, clove, cinnamon, wintergreen and other flavoring ingredients. Each manufacturer guards his secret formula as carefully as do the makers of fine whiskeys or Coca-Cola.

So far no one has thought of coming up with a whisky or cola flavored snuff, thus combining the various markets.

Why would anyone want to take snuff? There are several reasons. You don't have to light it, filter it or puff it—and it leaves the hands free to work. Second, it is inexpensive. A weekly supply of three ounces costs about 36 cents.

Many of its fans also claim snuff helps clear their sinuses, settle their stomachs and relax their nerves. And, finally snuff doesn't start forest fires or cause explosions in chemical factories.

Committee to Get New Members

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP)—The powerful Ways and Means Committee of the House will be getting some new members next year — and they might make or break some of President Kennedy's key programs in the untested 88th Congress.

The committee could tip the balance for or against the kind of tax cut the President will recommend, in fulfillment of his promise to submit a tax reform program including a net reduction in income taxes. It could go along with, or drastically reshape, the complex major tax reforms the Treasury is expected to propose.

If Kennedy renews his controversial proposal for health care of the aged under Social Security, the crucial vote likely will come in this committee. Health care was defeated this year by a 19-vote margin in the Senate — but the Democrats have picked up seats there.

So, for the President, a shift in membership of Ways and Means could be a major event — if it meant a shift in sentiment.

It is too early to tell whether this will be the case. But there is a recent example of what even a small difference could mean: The President, despite a personal plea, lost an unemployment insurance extension bill in the committee by a one-vote margin.

What is in view now, because of retirements from Congress, is the replacement of two Democratic members and one Republican, Noah M. Mason of Illinois, all of whom are among the 25-member committee's pronounced conservatives.

One of the most significant legislative-political undertakings of next January will be the filling of the two Democratic seats. They now are occupied by Rep. Burr P. Harrison of Virginia and Rep. James B. Frazier Jr. of Tennessee, neither of whom was a candidate for re-election. They are two of the four majority party members who voted against the administration on the unemployment insurance issue.

Names are already popping up in speculation, but the lists remain wide open until the eve of the first Democratic caucus of 1963.

Among three Southerners figuring in the speculation, two might be considered by Kennedy lieutenants as generally friendly to administration proposals than the members being replaced. They are Rep. Ross Bass of Tennessee, who has repeatedly supported Kennedy bills, and Rep. W. Pat Jennings of Virginia, regarded as a moderate in the generally conservative delegation from the Old Dominion.

The other is a staunch conservative: Rep. Phil M. Landrum of Georgia, known outside his district mainly for coauthorship of an act regulating some union activities.

Ways and Means is a unique committee in a number of ways. Democratic members are elected to it by all their party colleagues in the House. They then name Democratic members of the other committees. Republicans have a separate Committee on Committees for this purpose.

Ways and Means deals with the one subject, raising of revenue, on which the Constitution gives the House initial jurisdiction. While other committees—like Appropriations—may be considered equally powerful, Ways and Means has unmatched prestige in a chamber that frequently suffers from, and earnestly reacts against, feelings of inferiority to the Senate.

Recession Timetable Pushed Back

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The timetable for the next recession is being pushed back. Only a few still think it will come early next year. The big majority of businessmen and stock traders now think it won't start till later, maybe not in 1963 at all, even though the first weeks of the year may show the usual post Christmas letdown.

The reasons? Cuba and Berlin seem to assure continued big spending for defense items, old and new. A U.S. Treasury deficit means more government money being pumped into the economy, whatever the long-range effect of a rising federal debt.

Administration goals of stimulating business promise tax cuts both for business and individuals—meaning more money to spend by these important segments of the economy, and also a further increase in the Treasury deficit.

And, finally, there's the general health of the economy right now—far from bursting its seams, but scarcely shrinking away either.

Record sales of new autos this month and last show the consumer ready to spend for what he wants. And a prosperous auto industry calls upon a host of suppliers.

Deliciously Crisp Waffles—Ready In A Jiffy

Whip up some waffles, why don't you, especially these days when the mercury's low. They're "busy-day" easy and quick if you have self-rising flour on hand for the making.

This recipe for basic waffles directs you to fold stiffly beaten egg whites into the batter made of enriched self-rising flour, egg yolk, melted butter or margarine and milk. This step will give you waffles that are light and tender inside while the outside is crisp and golden brown.

The traditional breakfast of hot waffles with syrup and bacon strips will stand you in good nutritional stead for full winter days. The self-rising flour is enriched to supply you generous amounts of three B-vitamins, food iron and calcium.

Listed below are several other waffle ideas you might try in addition to plain waffles with syrup.

WAFFLES

2 eggs, separated 1 1/2 cups milk

1/2 cup melted butter or 2 cups sifted enriched self-rising flour

Beat egg yolks. Add butter or margarine and milk. Stir into flour and mix until smooth. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake on hot waffle baker until golden brown.

Makes 4 servings.

—Hot spiced applesauce over waffles topped with little pork sausages.

—Waffles topped with creamed turkey, chicken or ham.

—Chopped dates, nuts, apple, raw cranberry or raisins added to waffle batter.

Christmas Is Here Feeling Is With Us

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Do you have an uneasy, overwhelming feeling that Christmas is near?

I do. I hear the song of Santa Claus ringing clear.

They have already chopped down a giant spruce from a West-margin, the majority of corporations are reporting higher profits. And some are raising dividends. Many report rising sales volume.

This doesn't add up to a faltering economy. And the stock market has been taking due note, bidding up stock prices most days in the last three weeks.

The stock market has been wrong plenty of times before. But just now at any rate, it thinks too many factors are working for greater economic growth in the months just ahead for fears of a recession to be well-grounded.

To Wall Street eyes the Cuban situation spells two things—that the United States is going to stay tough; and that the Soviets will keep up the pressure, by stealth or openly, wherever it can.

And that means continued defense spending. The market apparently puts little faith in an early reversal of the arms race.

At the same time, Washington's heart seems set on trying everything it can, including a tax cut, to spark more business activity and while the total of unemployment. In this, the United States has the expressed sympathy of its European allies and a promise to help it stave off any run on the dollar that high Treasury deficits might tempt speculators to try.

Wall Street may doubt if any of this spells the start of a real boom. It does seem to feel that the fears of recession it cherished last May and June were overdone.

Those who hold that the business cycle is still with us, in spite of the cushions and buffers built up since the 1930s, say that a recession will come along in due time.

But as of today that time seems to be farther off than first thought.

ern site to bring its olde, greene dignity to Washington, which our people worshippe as the place to which our taxes doe flowe and from which the true flowe of our being is promised.

As one season leaps upon another now, so our choice is dismayed. Before the flying baseballs of the World Series land, the football is in the air.

The basketball player dribbles. The hockey player teases the puck. The people who like to ski don't wait for the snow to fall;

The seasons have lost their reason. Everything now is ahead of what used to be.

I realized this some weeks ago when I received a card wishing me a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year in 1963."

Having just discarded our withered, home-carved pumpkin—our daughter likes to sustain the ghostly splendor of a candlelit jack-o'-lantern—we hate to have our appreciation of Thanksgiving pressed upon us unduly by threat of the imminent arrival of Santa

Before you can fully assume the prayerful attitude of being grateful for what you have, the push is put upon you to confer what perhaps you can't afford.

Such is the rush of seasons that before you can enjoy the harvest—if any, and some years it is small—you are summoned to the great giveaway.

Well, for one, I don't like turning the calendar upside down quite that far. Who likes to get a Claus.

of the imminent arrival of Santa flag on the Fourth of July bought in December, or a speckled Christmas necktie purchased last February?

Planning ahead has its advantages but also its defects. Don't get me wrong. I'm not anti-Santa Claus. I'm speaking of the situation here at home.

If you have a Christmas present you want to send to any dear one overseas, I echo the urgent advice of the U.S. postal service: "Mail it already—or as soon as possible."

Marshmallows, Dressed Up, Become Sweet Coffee Fluff

Looking back with nostalgia to long-ago marshmallow roasts, it's obvious that we have never outgrown our affection for these sweets. We have simply found new and more sophisticated ways to enjoy marshmallows.

Coffee Fluff, for instance, is one of the prettiest, tastiest desserts you could choose. Yet it's easily prepared with our old friends, the marshmallows, blended with coffee, whipped cream and flavorings and chilled to a smooth, cool consistency.

Since Coffee Fluff is a refrigerator dessert, you can prepare it well ahead of schedule. At serving time, after you have the coffee-pot a-brewing, place a dollop of whipped cream on each serving of Coffee Fluff. You'll find this dairy desert ideal for all sorts of entertaining, from a bridal shower to a neighborly kaffeeklatsch.
